

In 2009 Dr. Lybarger, a service connected disabled veteran himself, started Resiliency Resources with the mission of providing mental health and rehabilitation related services to veterans and their family members. In addition to supporting veterans and their families with behavioral health issues, Dr. Lybarger is also working to enhance services to veterans with hearing loss.