

NET Television and NET Radio to Broadcast Presidential and Vice-Presidential Debates

LINCOLN, Neb. (Sept. 19, 2012) -- As the nation counts down to election day, Nebraskans can count on NET for the information they need to make informed decisions about the candidates and issues.

Award-winning political journalists Gwen Ifill and Judy Woodruff will co-anchor live “PBS NewsHour” coverage of the presidential debates between President Barack Obama (D) and Mitt Romney (R) on NET Television on Wednesday, Oct. 3; Tuesday, Oct. 16; and Monday, Oct. 22, all at 8 p.m. CT on NET1/HD.

Ifill and Woodruff will also anchor live coverage of the single vice-presidential debate between Vice-President Joe Biden (D) and Paul Ryan (R) on Thursday, Oct. 11, at 8 p.m. CT on NET1/HD. All of the television debates will be followed by a 30-minute analysis of the discussions.

NET Radio will also carry live, simultaneous NPR coverage of the presidential and vice-presidential debates. And, round-the-clock online election coverage is available anytime on the NET website at netNebraska.org/campaignconnection2012 where there are links to PBS and NPR stories.

NET1/HD is a part of NET Television. NET Television, NET Radio and the NET website are services of NET. For program schedules, visit NET’s website at netNebraska.org. Download the free NET Radio Nebraska App in the iTunes and Android markets to access NET Radio’s live streams and archives of NET News stories.
