

State High School Volleyball Championships Broadcast Live on NET Television

Ace serves, spikes and blocks abound as the top high school girls volleyball teams in Nebraska take to the court to determine which is the best in the state on “NSAA State Volleyball Championships” airing live across the state on Saturday, Nov. 10, on NET1 and NET-HD.

This annual championship competition will be broadcast from the Heartland Event Center in Grand Island, with sportscaster Larry Puntaney and former University of Nebraska All-American volleyball standout Kathi Wieskamp calling the action.

The championship match-ups begin with the Class D-2 finals at 9 a.m. CT, followed at 11 a.m. CT by the Class C-2 contest and the Class A championship match at 1 p.m. CT. The finals action picks up again at 4:30 p.m. CT with the Class B match, followed by the Class D-1 contest at 6:30 p.m. CT and, wrapping up the day’s action, the Class C-1 finals at 8:30 p.m. CT.

All classes of the volleyball championships will be webcast live at neprepzone.com. A link to the webcast can also be found at netnebraska.org. Webcasting is made available through a partnership between the Omaha World Herald and NET Television.

“NSAA State Volleyball Championships” is a production of NET Sports, Nebraska’s Home for Sports. NET1 and NET-HD are part of NET Television, a service of NET. For a complete program schedule, visit NET’s website, netNebraska.org/television.
