Good Morning

The weather was pleasant, the sky was clear, and the birds were chirping. It was a beautiful morning in Nebraska.

---

Recreation Fee to End October 1

By Don Shastien

Recreation fees will not be charged in the state's outdoor recreation areas after Oct. 1, as scheduled in a bill passed by the Legislature, according to a leading state official.

---

Ultimateum Is Handled to Steel Union

Lay-off Start if Pact Not Extended Today

By Paul L. S. M.

A steel strike is expected today, as the United Steelworkers of America and the Bethlehem Steel Co. failed to reach an agreement on a new contract. The union is expected to strike, as the company has not agreed to extend the current contract.

---

Charles Starkweather Dies in Electric Chair

Four Moves in 10 Hours Prove Futile

Two Supreme Courts Deny Senate's and Governor's Requests

By John A. L. W.

Charles Starkweather, the notorious killer, was executed today in the electric chair after his appeals were rejected.

---

Mass Killer Meets Death Unperturbed

Utters No Last Words in Execution Room

By James A. D. W.

A mass killer, who had appealed to the court for mercy, was executed today without making a statement.

---

Sunlight Stream Edges the Horizon

The sun was setting on another day in Nebraska. The sky was painted with hues of orange and pink, and the birds were singing their last song of the day.

---

Winter Warms the Cold

The temperature was about to drop, but the sun was shining. It was a good day to go outside and enjoy the warmth.

---

Beach, 2 Others Drown

Drowning in the Platte River

By John A. L. W.

A young man and two others were found drowned in the Platte River today. The incident occurred during an afternoon swim.

---

Top Salaries of Air Force

Class Looking Out of Omaha

By John A. L. W.

The top salaries of Air Force personnel were announced today. The highest salary was for a major general.

---

New A-Tests Need Is Told

"U. S. to Proceed on Course of Talk Fall" by James A. L. W.

The United States is planning to proceed with nuclear tests, according to a recent statement. The tests will be conducted at a secret location.

---

Blazing Away

The sun was setting on another day, and the sky was aglow with colors of orange and pink. It was a beautiful evening in Nebraska.?