

Dr. David Rutledge is a retired Lincoln Public School Principal. He now works as a real estate agent. He lost his hearing to Meniere's Disease at the age of 52, and has been helped by the use of cochlear implants. Dr. Rutledge volunteers with various causes and organizations, and works to help people experiencing hearing loss to cope with the change.