

Peggy A. Williams has been with the Nebraska Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (NCDHH) for 31 years. Ms. Williams began her employment with the Commission as a Field Representative/Lead Worker and in 1999 became the Commission's Mental Health Specialist. Ms. Williams represents and advocates for accessible mental health and substance abuse services in Nebraska for people who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing. She provides educational and awareness programs on a statewide level to consumer groups, agencies and organizations about mental health/substance abuse appropriate services for Deaf and Hard of Hearing people and monitors programs to ensure equal access.

Ms. Williams's background is in the area of alcohol/substance abuse and is a QAST V/Licensed sign language interpreter.