

Stories of Nebraska Quilters is a pilot project developed by the International Quilt Study Center and Museum with its partners, NET Learning Services and the Nebraska State Historical Society.

For the pilot,
we're presenting

Grace Snyder
Tiny Stitches, Big Life

Follow this Sandhills icon of American quiltmaking on her amazing, award-winning journey.

In the tradition of NebraskaStudies.org, this site explores a group of Nebraska quilts and quilters in connection to Nebraska history: how quilters' life stories are reflected in their quilts. Along with specialized 4th grade classroom activities, each module will be rich with sound, images (some magnified for a closer look), and fun interactivity.

International Quilt Study Center & Museum
University of Nebraska-Lincoln

