Girls Back in Time
It was night and Lizzie, Lily and Nelly were having a sleepover at Lily's house. When Lizzie arrived at Lily's house everything was ready. They were in middle of a game when there was a buzzing sound. Lizzie thought it was her phone but it wasn't buzzing! She then realized it was the watch that they found when in kindergarten and it buzzes whenever there is a mission.

It's not any normal rescue mission. It's back in time!

Lizzie told the girls where she would be.
Lizzie entered the portal. She ended up in a busy road at San Francisco. There she met a boy named Joey and his sister Rose who were walking beside a wagon through Mountain Trail. She asked him where he was going. He laughed and said, “Los Angeles.”
Lizzie felt a wet nose as she walked along the trail. It was Oscar, her dog. She wasn’t surprised since he likes to follow her.

After a while they had to stop for supper and a good night’s sleep. Next morning they kept on walking and ended up at a rushing river. Rose fell into the river and started to drown!
Lizzie grabbed a rope, tied one end to Oscar’s collar holding the other end tightly. Oscar jumped into the rushing river and swam towards Rose dragging Lizzie along since the rope was short!

Lilly saw a portal open in front of her. It showed Lizzie in trouble so she got a rope from the attic and went through the portal to help Lizzie. She tied her rope to Lizzie’s rope and saved all three of them.
Before Joey could ask Lily grabbed the watch and the two girls with Oscar returned home through the portal.

When they got home someone threw a pillow at them. It was Nelly! PILLOW FIGHT!!
