

Harrys Dino Day

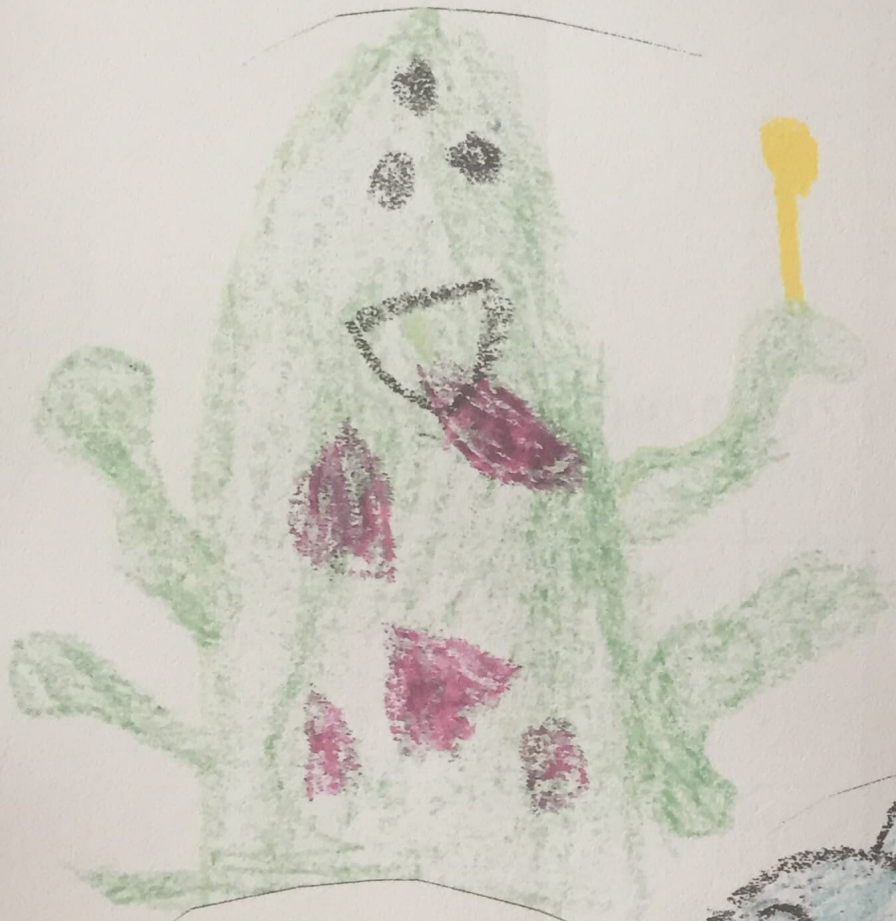

By Emerson Lee

ONCE upon a time there was a little boy named Harry. He was in the Store. He saw a monster.

The monster turned him into a T-rex.
He was huge and had very sharp teeth.
Then Harry made a hole in the stone.

Then he saw more Dinosaurs.

He asked can you be my friend?
yes they said. Do you want to play tag.?

Harry said yes I do.
Then the friends ran and played all day.
And when the day was over Harry went
to sleep

The next day Harry woke up and ate breakfast. He totally forgot all about when he saw the monster. Then he remembered.

Then he said I am not a dinosaur I am a little boy. He explained it all.
He said I was at the Stone and saw a monster. Then he turned me into a dinosaur.

He asked can you help me? They said yes we can. So they went to the monsters house. They got the magic wand and turned Harry back into a little boy.
