BACKGROUND
Who Was Standing Bear?

activity
Essay

Have students read the following section on the Trail of Standing Bear in Nebraska Studies.
http://nebraskastudies.org/1875-1899/the-trial-of-standing-bear/

Then, have students write an essay explaining who Standing Bear was, and why he and his people had to move to Indian Territory.

BACKGROUND

Where Was Indian Territory?

Map Analysis

Have students read the Ponca Trail of Tears page and examine the map there.

Then, have them discuss these questions:

- Where was Indian Territory located?
- Why do you think the U.S. Government selected this area?
- Why might the Ponca have been willing to move from their homelands in Nebraska in the mid-19th century?
activity

Have students research an atlas of the United States to accomplish the following:

1. Determine the distance (using both the metric and standard units of measure) by automobile from the town of Niobrara, Nebraska to Arkansas City, Arkansas.

2. Indicate the highways and interstate systems you would travel to reach your destination.

3. Estimate how long the journey would take today, and compare/contrast that to the journeys Standing Bear made from his reservation in Nebraska to the Indian Territory.

To find this information, you can look at any standard atlas and math book.
Standing Bear Photos

activity
Photograph Analysis

Have students use the National Archives Photo Analysis Worksheet in the Resources section at the end of this document to analyze the photographs of Standing Bear in this section. Have students compare and contrast the photograph of Standing Bear outside a log cabin on the Story of the Ponca page, to the photograph of Standing Bear in his full regalia on The Trial page:

http://nebraskastudies.org/1875-1899/the-trial-of-standing-bear/

Have students use these questions to initiate discussion:

1. What is Standing Bear holding in each photo?
2. What inferences can you make from the article he is holding?
3. What is he wearing around his neck?
4. What is different about the clothing he is wearing?
5. What inferences might you make based on the background?

Writing

Have students read these pages in the Nebraska Studies 1875-1899 timeline, and watch the accompanying video clips.

Then view the video on the following page:

Next, read "Standing Bear Arrested" at

Follow up with these discussion questions:

1. Why do you think the people of Neligh, Nebraska have been so faithful about tending to White Buffalo Girl's grave?
2. Why do you think it was so important to Bear Shield to be buried on the Ponca homeland?

Discussion

Have students read these pages in the Nebraska Studies 1875-1899 timeline.

http://www.nebraskastudies.org/1875-1899/the-trial-of-standing-bear/the-trial/

Then, have them discuss these questions about the events prior to the trial:

1. Why were Standing Bear and his followers brought to Fort Omaha?
2. Was General Crook sympathetic with Standing Bear's wish to return to his home along the Niobrara? Why or why not?
3. Who was Thomas Tibbles? How did he try to help Standing Bear?
