1800-1849 Fur Traders and Missionaries

1 Traders

Activity

Discussion

Have students read the following sections in the 1800-1849 timeline of Nebraska Studies.

Then have students answer the following questions:

1. Which of the four traders was the "best friend" of the Native Americans? What is your evidence?
2. What was the major motivation of someone to get into the fur trading business?
3. What are some positive outcomes for the Native Americans in making the trades?
4. What are some negative outcomes for the Native Americans in dealing with the fur traders?
5. What are some ways a trader could get the local Native Americans to see him as worthy of friendship and trustworthy?
6. What were some of the greatest problems facing fur traders?

Trading Post Artifacts

Activity

Artifact Analysis

Have students read the following page on the 1800-1849 timeline of Nebraska Studies.

Then, have students click on the photograph of typical trade goods of the period to enlarge it. Next, either hold a discussion using the questions below as a starting point or have students complete the Artifact Analysis Worksheet (adapted from the National Archives Artifact Analysis Worksheet) found in the Resources section.

1. What is an artifact?
2. What are each of the items in the photo starting at the left and moving to the right?
3. If you were a fur trader, which four of the items pictured do you think would be the best for trading purposes? Explain your answer.

Missionaries

activity

Discussion

Have students read the Missionaries pages in the Fur Traders and Missionaries section on the 1800-1849 timeline of Nebraska Studies.

Then, lead a discussion that analyzes the purpose and effectiveness of missionary societies, including the following topics:

- Moses and Eliza Merrill
- John Dunbar and Samuel Allis
- Big Ax and Shah-re-tah-ri
e
- The disagreement in how to approach the work of the mission between Dunbar/Allis and their mission board
- The link between conversion to Christianity and being made "civilized"
- Native American reaction to the Christian religion

Observe its parts.

Describe it as if you were explaining it to someone who can’t see it.

Think about: shape, color, texture, size, weight, age, condition, movable parts, or anything written on it.

Try to make sense of it.

Answer as best you can.

Where is it from?

When is it from?

Who used it? List reasons you think so.

What was it used for? List reasons you think so.

What does this tell you about the people who made and used it?

What does it tell you about technology at the time it was made?

What is a similar item from today?

Use it as historical evidence.

What did you find out from this artifact that you might not learn anywhere else?

What other documents or historical evidence are you going to use to help you understand the event or time in which this artifact was used?

Observe its parts.
List the people, objects and activities you see.

PEOPLE          OBJECTS          ACTIVITIES

Write one sentence summarizing this photo.

Try to make sense of it.
Answer as best you can. The caption, if available, may help.
Who took this photo?

Where is it from?

When is it from?

What was happening at the time in history this photo was taken?

Why was it taken? List evidence from the photo or your knowledge about the photographer that led you to your conclusion.

Use it as historical evidence.
What did you find out from this photo that you might not learn anywhere else?

What other documents, photos, or historical evidence are you going to use to help you understand this event or topic?
